

LEO Energys extensive experience in the lithium battery business has been able to expand itself to develop the safety circuitry required to handle such high end but potentially hazardous batteries. From Watts to kWatts we have the protection module required for your portable energy application

Don't let your company sell lithium batteries without adequate protection and control.

Contact LEO Energy Solutions and let us help you keep your clients safe.

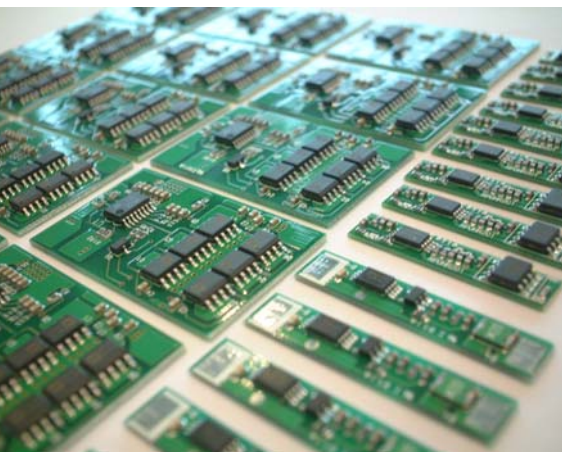

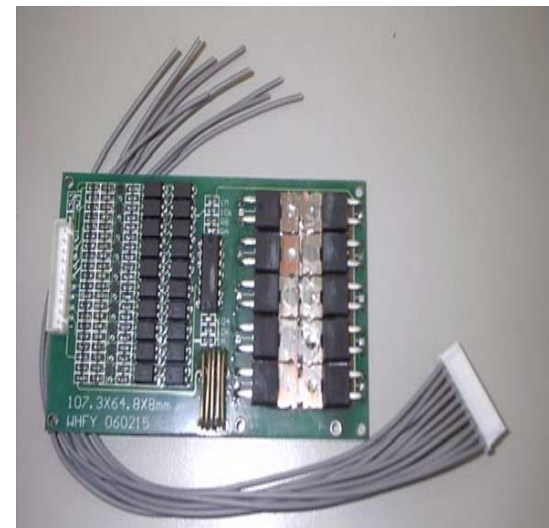

7S – 10S 33A Protection Module

100S Electric Vehicle Module

13S 50A Protection Module

RS232 Protection module up to 28S